

Time to Ride

© 2003 Jim Chaps

Jim Chaps

It doesn't mean a solitary thing,
That I've spent half my life meandering,
In serving gods of the lesser things,
I'm ignoring the calling of the King of Kings.
It's time...

Time to ride, time to ride.
Time to ride, It's time to ride.

Now I ride by faith and not by sight,
Since I got knocked off my horse,
By a blinding light.
But I pick myself back up and
Pick up the fight
For the understanding heart
That knows wrong from right.
It's time...

Time to ride, time to ride.
Time to ride, it's time to ride.

The Jim Chaps "Horse-J" logo features four horse-head profiles.....
(one profile forms in the reverse-field between two others.)

Track 3

From the CD "First"
© 2004 Jim Chaps
Jim Chaps Publishing
BMI

Credits

Guitar and vocals:
Jim Chaps and
Jay Webber

This song is a call to action,
It's a charge
to get off our arses,
and on our horses.
It means, get up and go!
Move! Get 'R Done. Action!
Do It Now. Ride!

What part of "Go"
don't we understand?

Photo courtesy NTRA

Tiznow's Belmont Classic - Tiznow (No. 10 with jockey, Chris McCarron in the pink/blue dot silks) is winning his second consecutive Breeders Cup Classic--against the odds, as he was injured earlier in the year--2001. This event took place at Belmont Park in New York, barely a month after the events of 9/11. Tiznow's Belmont Classic victory represents determination to overcome. Tiznow is a modern-day Seabiscuit, (equine inspiration, for sure.) and reminds us never to give up, but to get up!